NB There is no subscription charge for technical membership, which provides you with the same insurance cover when participating in Club activities as full and associate members. However, it does not in itself entitle you to take part in the Club's social events, vote at Club meetings, stand as an officer or member of the General Committee or audition for parts in our major productions. If you wish also to take part in the Club's social activities, a subscription of £10 pa will be payable.

This membership will remain valid until you notify the Hon Secretary in writing that you no longer wish to be a technical member, are accepted as a full member or are notified in writing by the Hon Secretary that your membership has been terminated.
